

ALASKA SEA GRANT
State Fellowship
PROGRAM

"The Alaska Sea Grant State Fellowship gave me the opportunity to gain valuable professional experience and contribute to the development of fisheries management in the North Pacific. I strongly recommend this program to anyone interested in pursuing a career in marine conservation and policy in Alaska."

— Matt Robinson, State Fellow 2015–2016

Photo by UAF Marketing and Communications. An iceberg is frozen in place near Juneau's Mendenhall Glacier.

Alaska Sea Grant will fund three or more state fellows in 2020–2021. Applications are due Wednesday, February 14, 2020.

2020–2021 Fellowship Agencies

Alaska Sea Grant Mariculture Fellow
NOAA Alaska Fisheries Science Center
NOAA Fisheries Alaska Region
National Park Service
North Pacific Fishery Management Council
United State Geological Survey

For more information, and how to apply, visit alaskaseagrant.org/fellowships