

Eyes on Owls

Live Owl Show

Presented by
Harwich Conservation Trust

Saturday, March 3rd
choose 11 am or 2 pm

Harwich Community Center
(directions below)

Reserve your seat today!

Come see me on Saturday, March 3rd!

Students and 18 & under: $5 • Adults: $8

Pay at the door, but reserve in advance.

Call: 508-432-3997 or email: hct@cape.com

(Provide name, phone, and number of reservations)

Each show lasts about 1 1/2 hours.

Bird
Watcher's
General Store

Co-sponsored by

Cape
Cod 5
Since 1855

The Cape
Cod Chronicle

Join the fun and win a raffle prize, an 18" by 24" fine art print of a Snowy Owl in flight!

Proceeds benefit the nonprofit Harwich Conservation Trust and its land preservation efforts.

So, enjoy the show and help protect owl habitat at the same time - what a deal!

Naturalist and owl expert Marcia Wilson will introduce live owls found on Cape Cod and beyond.

Each owl has a permanent disability which prevents survival in the wild.

DIRECTIONS TO HARWICH COMMUNITY CENTER AT 100 OAK STREET, HARWICH, MA 02645, FROM ROUTE 6:
Take Exit 10, south on Route 124 to stop sign/signal at intersection with Queen Anne Road. Turn left onto Queen Anne Road. Turn right on to Oak Street. Harwich Community Center will be on your right.

Harwich Conservation Trust, P.O. Box 101, S. Harwich, MA 02661 • www.HarwichConservationTrust.org