

Seasonal Positions Available

Park Interpreter

Department of Conservation and Recreation Waquoit Bay National Estuarine Research Reserve

The Massachusetts Department of Conservation and Recreation (DCR), Division of State Parks and Recreation, is a major steward of the Commonwealth's natural and cultural resources.

LOCATION:

WBNERR is located on the south shore of Cape Cod. Washburn Island, South Cape Beach State Park, Reserve Headquarters and the Quashnet River Corridor are components of the Reserve which include trails through or near marshes, beaches, rivers and woodlands.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

Park Interpreters perform interpretive, educational and administrative tasks in the delivery of visitor services and resource interpretation. Tasks include: providing visitor information and orientation; staffing the Visitor Center; researching, developing and presenting interpretive programs that reflect the natural and cultural stories of the park; assisting with special events and programs independently or in partnership with other public or private organizations; delivering a robust calendar of events that includes regularly scheduled programs; incorporating the reserve's research into the programming.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Applicants must be at least eighteen years old, possess a basic knowledge of natural and cultural history, have experience working with the public, possess solid communications skills, have the ability to follow oral and written instructions, and the ability to work in a team setting. Current valid driver's license and reliable transportation required.

EMPLOYMENT INFORMATION:

Two positions; one begins April 9, 2017, the other begins May 7, 2017; both positions end September 9, 2017. Park Interpreters work a forty-hour week (which includes weekends, holidays, and possibly evenings). The salary is $606.58/week. Employees are paid bi-weekly. Benefits are available for long-term positions. Uniforms and training are provided. Park housing is not provided.

TO APPLY:

To apply for this Park Interpreter position visit MassCareers online. Create a user profile to apply for the position. To search for positions select "Find a State Job." Select "Job Search," and filter for agency "Department of Conservation and Recreation" from the drop-down menu and follow the instructions. Contact Nancy.Church@state.ma.us with any questions.

Applications shall be accepted until all positions are filled.