11 AM to 4 PM

Join the Curious!

An interactive science festival for the entire community sponsored by the Cape Cod Regional STEM Network and Cape Cod Community College.

AN ALL-DAY EXHIBITION

Discover Science, Technology, Engineering, and Design on Cape Cod

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

11:00am to 4:00pm

Cape Cod Community College
2240 Iyannough Rd, West Barnstable, MA

All exhibits will cover all areas of science, technology, engineering, and design and will be presented by organizations and businesses from Cape Cod and across the region. Build structures, explore chemistry, experience Lego robotics, launch rockets, learn about animals, nature and much more!

Contact Kristen Kibblehouse, STEM Events Coordinator, with any questions about the event or being an exhibitor by email kristen@capecodstemnetwork.org or phone 508.362.2131 x 4688.

Lunch will be available for purchase in the Cafeteria.

Our organization does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, disability, religion, national origin, or sexual orientation. All exhibits are handicapped accessible.
