

CALL FOR PRESENTERS

2018 Ocean Literacy Summit

Join the New England Ocean Science Education Collaborative (NEOSEC) for two days of engaging workshops, field trips, network building opportunities, and presentations related to Ocean Literacy Principle 2: The ocean and life in the ocean shape the features of Earth. Connect with people from across New England and beyond to discuss advancements in ocean literacy.

A variety of presentation formats are welcome.

Submit proposals by June 1, 2018

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/2018ol2>

Who is invited to present

Professional scientists

Formal and informal educators

Graduate students

Environmental consultants

Resource managers

Government officials

Citizen scientists & citizen science facilitators

Presentation sessions will be shared by two or more presenters to facilitate a cross-sector look at each topic.

Summit focus areas

Biogeochemical cycles

Coastal landforms

Sea level change

Land/coastline change

Beach dynamics

Erosion

Currents

Rivers/Sediment transport

Ocean acidification

Tectonic activity

NEOSEC is a collaboration of more than 50 institutions from across New England, including aquariums, museums, universities, government entities, and science and research centers, working collectively to advance ocean literacy.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, PLEASE VISIT NEOSEC.ORG OR CONTACT INFO@NEOSEC.ORG.