

MASHPEE NINE FILM

SCREENING

Come join us for a public screening of the film "Mashpee 9". In the summer of 1976 a peaceful gathering of Mashpee Wampanoag people was raided, and nine of the young people present were brutally arrested. The film documents the history of this event and its repercussions as the community drew closer together to support those arrested.

March 9th

2 - 4 pm
Redfield Auditorium
45 Water Street,
Woods Hole

FREE

Following the film screening, there will be a panel discussion on Indigenous Rights including Paula Peters, the filmmaker and local Mashpee Wampanoag woman.

This event is sponsored by:
the MIT/WHOI Joint Program Student Representatives
the MIT School of Science Quality of Life Grant the Society for Women in Marine Science.